1. Purpose and Scope

This policy sets out how employees of Clenergy Australia Pty Ltd plan, approve, book and claim business travel. It applies to all permanent employees, fixed-term staff and contractors travelling on company business, whether domestic or international, and covers air travel, ground transport, accommodation, meals and incidental expenses.

Travel is approved only where it delivers a clear business outcome that cannot reasonably be achieved by video conference. Managers are accountable for the travel budget of their cost centre.

9. Frequently Asked Questions

Question	Answer
Can I extend a business trip for personal leave?	Yes, with manager approval. The company pays only the cost of the business-only itinerary; you cover the difference and your own insurance for the private portion.
Can I keep frequent flyer points?	Yes. Points earned on business travel remain with the traveller, but a more expensive fare may never be chosen to earn points.
Who books travel for a candidate or contractor?	The hiring manager raises the request; the travel desk books it against the recruiting cost centre.
What if my claim is rejected?	Workday returns the claim with a reason. Correct and resubmit within 7 days, or escalate to Finance Shared Services.
